

January 2018

TEEN NEWSLETTER

Grades 6-12 / Ages 11-18
Free Programs & Events

GAME NIGHT

Jan 14th, 5:00-6:30PM

Play Smash Bros Brawl, have a Mario Kart tournament, or play tabletop games together! Teens can bring their own consoles & games, but HCPL is not responsible for any possible losses or damages.

BOOK CLUB

Jan 10th, 6:00-7:00PM

Read and discuss a new book together every month! The book for January's meeting is I Am Number Four. Ask the YA Librarian for a free copy to borrow if you wish to join.

ART JAM

Jan 28th, 5:00-6:00PM

Get together to draw and create while listening to music. Teen artists of all skill levels are encouraged to come! Music may be suggested, but must be age appropriate. Paper and various art supplies available to use.

DUNGEONS & DRAGONS

Every Thursday, 4-5pm & 5-6PM

There will be one game per group held at 4-5PM & 5-6PM. Players will begin getting ready for longer and more serious story campaigns. New players will be taught how to play, and the librarian can assist them in making their character. Or, you can try making it yourself beforehand by registering on dndbeyond.com. If you are interested in joining, please fill out a registration sheet and the librarian will contact you when space is available.

WEEKLY ANIME CLUB

Every Friday, 4:30-5:30PM

Interested in watching and meeting new people who enjoy anime & manga in a laid back environment? We view and discuss several episodes of a different anime such as Hunter x Hunter, My Hero Academia, and Amagi Brilliant Park every week. Join or stop by for a session, new members are welcome!

ANIME CLASSICS NIGHT

Jan 31st, 4:30-5:30PM

Anime Classics is a new event where we will be watching episodes from a classic anime newer anime fans may not know, or might have not seen yet! This month is The Rose of Versailles, an influential series set in the time of the French Revolution that originally ran in 1979-1980.

